

Many Buy Tickets For Charity Ball To Be Given by Catholic Women

THE Catholic Women's Benevolent association, now known as the Queen's Daughters, has received many prompt responses to the yearly call made by the people. These women have for 11 years dedicated their efforts into making the annual charity ball a success, thereby assuring them of a continuance in their philanthropic work, and dispensing the money judiciously for the poor in El Paso's environs. It must also be remembered that this organization does not assist only those of the Catholic denomination, but it helps each and every one in need, regardless of religious belief. Many visits were made to the sick during the year, including those at the county poor farm and also to the base hospital. The members have also given their bit to the Red Cross fund, to the K. of C. war fund; to the Soldiers' club; to the orphanage at Dallas; to the French war orphan fund; to the milk fund for sick babies; to the Traveler's Aid and to many other causes.

It is encouraging to this organization to find many are purchasing tickets for the worthy cause, knowing perhaps they cannot possibly attend, but who believe in donating their bit in order to permit others to derive some lasting benefit from their work.

Below is a list of those who have purchased tickets to date, in addition to those taking tickets: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nelson, Herbert Kohlberg, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Farrar, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dindley, Mr. and Mrs. Zach T. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kohlberg, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Horace H. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Croome, Mr. and Mrs. S. Krausner, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. LeBaron, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Anna, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Knicht, Dr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Knicht, Miss Mary Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gaines, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McKnight, John M. Wyatt, John Gray, Dr. D. Rodarte, E. A. Shelton, P. R. Peice, Dr. F. F. Fenchel, James I. Marr, W. S. Cronin, Harmon Krupp, Ben Williams, T. H. Rogers, J. H. Nations, Fred J. Feldman.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" CHILD'S LAXATIVE

Look at tongue! Remove poisons from stomach, liver and bowels.

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruit taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear.

The dance given by the Catholic women of El Paso on Friday night in Knights of Columbus hall at Fort Bliss was largely attended. During the evening the seventh cavalry minstrel boys put on some fine acts. The seventh cavalry orchestra furnished the music for dancing. A big celebration was planned for New Year's eve to be held in the hut. Miss Margaret Hines will have charge of the entertainment and promises some fine local talent. Mrs. L. E. Arvin and Mrs. Kivet, with several other Catholic women, will have charge of the dancing, and the program will last while the old year goes out and the new year comes in.

The enlisted men of the Fifth cavalry will have their annual Christmas dance Monday evening in the post hall. Special decorations have been provided and they are making an effort to make it one of the most enjoyable affairs they have ever given.

Douglass—Mrs. W. S. Tilton...$2.50
St. Joseph's—Mrs. Dan White...$2.50
St. Mary's—Mrs. Dan White...$2.50

The Lamar school, through the chairman, Mrs. W. H. Aldridge, reports the adoption of 12 orphans, adopted by Virginia Homan, Robert Walsh, Thomas McCade, Helen Roun, Eva Bell and Betty Huling-Squad, John Grant, Josiah H. Paget, Jr., Mrs. M. P. Schuster and Paul Hammett.

Mrs. Charles A. Hyatt and Dorothy Waldron have sold enough French orphan medals to earn for one orphan for one year.

Miss Gertrude Evans, of the art department of the high school, who introduced the "Rock Dolls" in El Paso, has made and sold enough dolls to adopt little Andre Lagadee.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lindsay, instead of giving Christmas presents this year, has adopted two French orphans through Mrs. Charles H. Stewart. The Equal Franchise league, at its cabaret tea at the Sheldon on Wednesday, made enough to care for one orphan. At the regular meeting Friday, the president, Mrs. O. A. Critchett, asked the members whether they should adopt a boy or girl. "A girl, of course," retorted one of the members. "Why should the Equal Franchise league adopt a boy?"

The chairman of El Paso, at their meeting Friday night, adopted 10 orphans.

The El Paso lodge of El Paso adopted 19 orphans.

Lieut. Jean Picard, of the French army, Red Cross lecturer, reports that in his home town in France, a French orphan has been adopted for every French child who lives in the town.

Following are the names of others who have adopted orphans in the past week: Charles N. Eastert, three orphans; V. S. Stewart, M. L. Naquin, Mrs. W. G. Roe for the cathedral Sunday school; Mrs. J. South for Housewives league; Mrs. Charles Pomeroy; Mrs. Elizabeth Lindsay and Mrs. James W. Laws, City National bank, two orphans.

Pupils of El Paso School For Girls Entertain With Plays For Christmas

ONE could well imagine that the characters from Mother Goose's rhymes had suddenly become animated and had stepped from the leaves of a book to entertain the audience that gathered in the great sunny play room at the El Paso School for Girls on Friday afternoon when the little pupils of the primary and intermediate departments presented their Christmas play, under the direction of the primary teacher, Miss Olive Krupp, assisted by Miss Gertrude Barnham and Miss Virginia Kimball.

All the quaint characters of Mother Goose were present. There was George Fergie, Tom Tom, the Piper's Son, Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater, and, in fact, all the folk one remembers from nursery days and with them Mother Goose herself, depicted by Miss Adelaide Overstreet. Just as true to tradition as could be, with her tall peaked hat and long, black mantle. Those taking part in this play were Miss Adelaide Overstreet, Alice Band, Katherine Cole, Betty Hawkins, Mary Josephine Evans, Myrtle Thomsen, Lorraine Crockett, Margery May McNary, Beale Levenson, Esther Calvert, Elsie Anna Walshall.

Anita Andreas, Maryelton Benton, Marjorie Harris, Florence Berg, James Bell, Mignon Pickersell, Elsie Tazherley, Arena Talila, Sarumay Butler, Frances Wallace, Helen Benton, Frances Davis, Louise Wilson, Virginia Kirkpatrick, Wilma Caruso, Elsie Cogan and Bettie Alley.

The young girls who acted as ushers were Miss Alethea Krupp, Miss Louise Krupp, Miss Louise Crawford, Miss Louise Beach and Miss Katharine White.

Following the presentation of the play, Miss Margaret Ormabene played a violin solo, accompanied at the piano by Miss Dorothy Ormabene. The "Mother Goose" play was followed by "The Christmas Guest," and was beautifully presented by the girls of the intermediate department. The finished presentation of this little play would have done credit to much older girls, every little actress taking her part in the performance with charming grace and utter lack of self-consciousness. The performance was directed by Miss Lois Larn, teacher of French and English. The

Dancing On Every Saturday, Red Cross

THE Red Cross is to be beginning this afternoon, a dance every Saturday afternoon at the Red Cross shop when Bobby Levin's jazz band will furnish the music. The music furnished by this orchestra is one of Mr. Levin's donations to the cause of mercy and will add materially to the pleasant times at the Red Cross shop spent over the tea cups by El Paso's society folk.

All departments at the shop are showing rare Christmas bargains and especially will the prices of the dolls and toys in this department appeal to mothers who are busy with their Christmas shopping for little ones. Articles are being sold so rapidly that it is difficult to fill all of the orders. In the art needle work department, requests are made for towels, hand embroidered linens, aprons of all kinds and fancy bags.

In the clothing department there is a demand for a khaki riding suit, a child's suit case for doll clothes, a collar and cuff set, a coat suit, and a dress suit.

Orange marmalade is the request in the jellies and jams department.

Various characters were taken by Mrs. Marian Turner, Edna May O'Brien, Elizabeth Ramey, Claire Tizard, Margaret Palm, Catherine Phillips, Julie Hawkins and Laura Yates.

The following program will be given at the Red Cross shop:

Song by school, accompanied by Miss Roba Moore.
Recitation, Thelma Boone.
Recitation, Mildred McCall.
"I'm Glad," Annie LaRue.
Violin solo, Margaret Yates.
"Santa and his Reindeer," Katherine McCall.
"Oh Christmas," Mary Louise Haley.
"The Fairest Gift," Helen McCall.
"Merry Christmas," Maxie LaRue.
"Spirit of Christmas Evening," Margaret Task.
Cradle song, Annie LaRue.
"Why Do Bells of Christmas Ring?" Thelma Kelly.
"A Visit From St. Nicholas," Goldie Hixon.
"Oh Christmas Club," six girls.
Recitation, Rex Larvey.
"Christmas Bells," Minnie Bowers.
Christmas Hymn, Velma Washington.
Recitation, Josephine Pollard.
"Bells Across The Snow," Noemie Sensible.
Piano solo, Allos Booner.
"Christmas," Cristel McCall.
"The Shepherd," 13 children.
"His Birth," Marguerite Kelly.
"Christmas," In Sweden, Mary Frances Webb.
Recitation, Dorothy Smith.
Vocal solo, "Silent Night," Reba Elliott Moore.
A beautiful Christmas service conducted by Chap. Timothy O'Keefe will be held on Christmas morning in the administration building at Ft. Bliss at 9 o'clock. The hall is to be beautifully decorated with Christmas trees from the mountains of New Mexico and American flags and flags of the allied nations.

Taking The Joy Out Of Life.

If you allow your eyes to go uncorrected for, the time will soon come when reading and the movies will cause you such an amount of discomfort that you'll have to give up those pleasures to a great extent. This applies to all those, young or old, who feel any degree of eyestrain—and there are mighty few who do not.

A scientific examination of your eyes will determine whether you need glasses or not—and glasses are never ordered for you unless the examination indicates your need for them. Twenty years of experience are behind every examination made.

Q.—Why should I buy a Piano?
A.—It will bring happiness To all the family Thro' All the year. It is the Gift of Permanence and Music maintains morale.

Q.—Then, which make of Piano should I buy?
A.—One that has been tried out for several years in this "Dry" climate. Many pianos which have good reputations in the North and East where the atmosphere is "damp," will shrink and crack in our hot "dry" summers here.

Q.—Why should I buy a Piano from the El Paso Piano Co.?

A.—This company has spent the past 12½ years experimenting to ascertain which make of pianos will not shrink and crack in this climate. And I can feel contented that an experiment is not being conducted with my money.

You need not be an expert judge of Piano Quality when you come to a "ONE-PRICE" House.

Q.—What Pianos have proven absolutely O. K. in this climate, after many years of test?

A.—Steinway, Weber, Everett, Stroud, Fischer, Stock, Schuch, Acolian Co.'s Pinnola Pianos.
